Color Film Shown to Club By Dr. Ritter

Plans Made For Club Scrapbook

The regular meeting of the Matthew Fontaine Maury Science Club was held in the Chemistry lecture room Tuesday. We had as our guest speaker of the evening, Dr. Paul Ritter of the Dramatic Department of the College. Dr. Ritter showed us some very interesting films that he had taken during travels through our own beautiful United States. The films included scenes from "Death Valley," a color film of a "Lava Flow in New Mexico," a colorful film of the "California Mission." Also shown were pictures of one trans-continental trip and pictures taken on his trip east, when he came to join our faculty. The Club enjoyed the pictures and the stories and comments, that Dr. Ritter made about them, and we are all looking forward to the time when he can be with us again.

After the delightful program we had a short business meeting at which time several matters of importance were discussed. Our president, Virginia Lewis, urged that our dues should be paid because only the names of members who have paid them, can appear in the Battlefield.

Plans for a convocation and also a chapel program to be given in the near future were discussed.

Several styles of club pins were examined and discussed but the choice of a pin was deferred until the next meeting.

The club also decided to start a "Scrap Book" and requested that each member would give them a snapshot, in order to secure an informal picture of each of the members. They also asked that clippings from papers concerning the club be turned in to Jerry Edmondson who was appointed to have charge of the scrapbook.

Modern Portias Hold Meeting

The Modern Portias held their regular meeting, Tuesday evening in the college Tea Room at 7:00 P. M.

The program for the evening was in charge of the Misses Bess Dobbins, Eunice Martin, Jerry Edmondson, and Virginia E. Lewis. Miss Dobbins gave a report of the life of William Shakespeare; Miss Edmondson talked to the members on Costume designs from 1550 to 1600, and she illustrated the various designs with sketches of the respective costume or garment; Miss Martin made the critical comments on the play "The Taming of the Shrew," which was the topic of discussion; Miss Lewis gave the current events of the day.

At the close of the discussion of "The Taming of the Shrew" the hostesses served delightful refreshments, after which the motion was made and carried that the meeting be adjourned.

"Yankees" Organize Metropolitan Club Greater Friendship Is Main Purpose

About forty northern girls of Mary Washington College have organized a club called the Metropolitan.

Anyone accessible to New York City is eligible to join.

The purpose of the club is to create greater friendships among the "Metropolitans" here in Mary Washington and to unite that group more closely with the aid of vacation get-togethers. Mary Jane Beatty is acting President.

A social meeting was held Friday evening November 17, in Seacobeck Hall for the purpose of becoming acquainted. Plans were made to have lunch at one of the New York hotels and to see a play during the Christmas holidays. A list of the names and addresses of the members will be printed in order that they can keep in touch with one another.

Faculty members in the club are Miss Mildred C. Spiesman, Dr. George W. Arms, Dr. Mary C. Baker, Dr. Arthur L. Vogelback, Dr. J. Marshall Hanna, and Mr. J. Kenneth Roach.

All who fit in the category of "Metropolitans" and have not joined are urged to see Caroline Muirhead, acting secretary.

Doll Show Dec. 7th

The freshmen are carrying on the tradition of holding a doll show every year. On Tuesday, December 12, at 7 P. M., the judging will take place with prizes being given the three best shows. The exhibits will be displayed in the town girls room from December 12-17.

The upperclassmen who are sponsoring the show, as announced by Marguerite Jennings, freshman commissioner, are: Ruth Duff, Evelyn Kerby, Dorothy Munden, Jane Smith, Mary Jane Beatty, Moe Kent, Mary Lee Pittman, Virginia Reel, Peggy Snow, Rhea James, Helen Buston, Penny Bie, Adelaide Rooborough, Eleanor Batchlet, Mellicent Graeff, Jane Hatcher, and Joanna Pappandreu.

Champion Bean Guessers

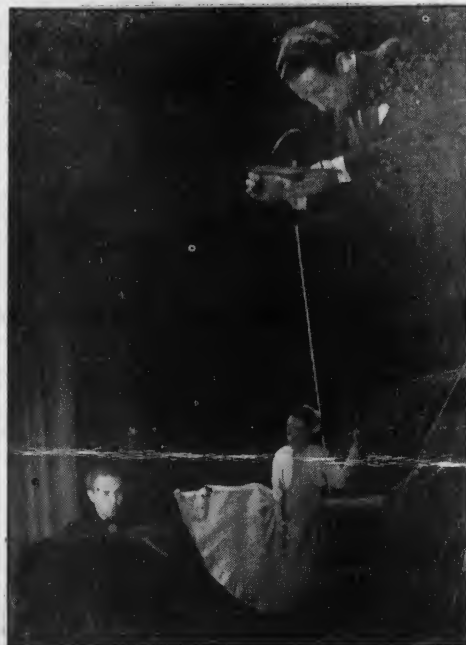

FLASH! Champion Bean Guessers of M. W. C. are Bertha Dickinson, Grace Edwards and Rosella Tuck according to the results of the Bulletin Bean Guessing Contest held recently.

First prize of a year's subscription to the Bulletin was taken by Bertha, as her guess of 431 came closest to the 437 beans in the jar. She is a freshman from Mobile, Alabama and is a Commercial Major, with membership in the Cotillion and Choral Clubs.

Grace Edwards, Vice-President of the Freshman Class won second prize. Keeping a scrapbook is her hobby and tennis her favorite sport.

The guess of 499, made by Rosella Tuck, a senior from Richmond, carried off third prize. She majors in history and plans to take up Historical Research work after leaving college.

"IT'S A SMALL WORLD"

Harry Burnett of the Yale Puppeteers manipulates a miniature Martha Graham marionette while Forman Brown, lyricist-composer of the organization plays a ditty. All three will be seen in the adult marionette revue, "It's A Small World" when it plays at James Monroe High School Auditorium, on December 4. The unique organization that employs fifty portrait puppets in its current revue is celebrating its twelfth anniversary with a coast to coast tour. (Auspices M. W. C. Choral Club.)

Cotillion Club Entertains

The old members of the Cotillion Club entertained their new members and sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Faulkner and Miss Lillie Turman, at a buffet supper in the tea room Thursday night at 7 o'clock. The table was lovely with a very attractive centerpiece. After the supper the guests and hostesses adjourned to the dome room for an indoor treasure hunt. Each old member was paired off with a new member to search for the hidden treasure.

The hostess for the supper included: Alice Amory, Virginia Fluke, Mo Kent, Jane Rocap, Shirley Bortner, Lucy Dickinson, Wil Hall, Drew Martin, Margie Gilman, Honey Henderson, Ann Givier, Anne Stewart, Jane Waugh, Marguerite Peckles, Jackie Edge, and Janie Hatcher. The guests of honor were the sponsors and Virginia Smith, Betty Titsink, Jane Garrett, Mary Curran Eskridge, Josephine Walker, Bette Flenniken, Jean Grant, Betsy Rowe, Ruth English, Ruth Birchett, Peggy Foster, Bertha Dickinson, Frances Lawson and Betty Jones.

Red Head Club Is Organized

The first meeting of the Red Head Club was held Nov. 22 for the purpose of organizing. The officers were elected as follows: President, Eunice Martin; Vice-President, Marguerite Jennings; Sec't., Alice Burton; Treas., Mary Ellen Seaborn; Reporter, Virginia Reel.

The club plans to carry on a very constructive program this year. The following plans were discussed: checking in chapel and convocation, sponsoring of Poster Day. The club intends to give several Pop Programs and hold Pep Rallies during the year.

A. A. Presents Convocation

The Athletic Association presented, on Wednesday night, November 29, a very interesting program, being entirely different from any they have given in previous years.

Instead of the usual skit or talk, moving pictures were shown. "The Sport Parade of the Year" was the first film shown in this series and the title explains the contents; horse racing, tennis, polo, skiing, rowing tournaments, swimming, and fencing, were presented in a very interesting manner.

The surprise of the evening were the scenes of the last year's May Day pictures, and scenes from campus life, such as baseball games, jitter bug dancing, exhibition, racing, jumping and other physical education activities. Several beautiful scenes were also shown of the city of Fredericksburg and vicinity. This last film was produced by Mr. Lewis one of our own Fredericksburg citizens.

Big Barn Dance Tonight

Annually the Juniors entertain the Freshmen. Tonight the big event is taking place in the form of a barn dance in the Big Gym at 8:00. So come on, freshies, dress and act the part because a prize is being given for the best costume.

The floor-show will feature Uncle Acia and the Oak City four. The Juniors have been working for weeks on the party so let's make it a success, Juniors and Freshmen! Let's Dance!

Yale Puppeteers To Present Benefit

Dec. 4 Date Set For Novel Program

These are days of intense activity for the College Choral Club with a benefit just around the corner and the Christmas programme less than two weeks off. The Club is proud to present The Yale Puppeteers in "It's A Small World" on Monday evening, December 4 in the Auditorium of James Monroe High School. It is also a matter of pride to the Club to be privileged to present Dr. Luther A. Richman, State Supervisor of Music, as guest artist on the Christmas programme.

The officers of the Choral Club are Phyllis Walker, President; Betty Ruth Mavis, Vice-President; Margery Brenneman, Secretary and Business Manager; June Campbell, Treasurer; Katherine Nutt, Librarian; Marian Schultz, Assistant Librarian. Miss Eva Taylor Eppes, Head of the Music Department, and the accompanists are Rose Ronci and Margaret Dudley.

Members of the Choral Club, one hundred in number, expect to appear in their new vestments on the occasion of the Christmas programme. The vestments are in the Mary Washington College colors, antique blue and white.

Publicity Committee Divided Into Sections

The Athletic association of Mary Washington college is divided into various sections and each section having a chairman and under her a committee working on the various sports and activities of the association.

The publicity committee with Eunice Martin acting as chairman, held a meeting last week for the purpose of getting the committee organized in a different way from that which it has been functioning for the past three months. At this meeting the following girls volunteered to work on the following respective committees: Bulletin: Feature Articles, Betty Graybill, Louise Rosenbaum, Ethel Wilson, Anne Wilkin, Jeane Blackmore, Caroline Tate, Peggy Moran, Virginia Ubrin and Debora Goldstiene; News Articles, Louise Rosenbaum, Ethel Wilson, Deirieux Hayes, Caroline Tate, Ellen Thornton, Betty Graybill and Debora Goldstiene; Novelty Writers and creators of Novelty Devices: Margaret J. Athey, Virginia DeLoache, Marjorie Marek; Poster Committee: Betty Jeanne Pittman, Billie Papas, Jessie Stoner, Josephine Holding, Anna Parks, Anne Wilkins. This committee has with it two very responsible and very talented seniors Miss Ruth Anderson and Miss Lenora Weiss, who will assist the group in any way (Continued on Page 3)

NEW BULLET MAKE-UP

This week the Bullet is inaugurating a fairly complete change in its make-up.

In place of the double editorial column, two 1½ inch columns are being used. Keyhole Comments has been changed to Candid Shots by B. B. Shot. In addition, several new columns are appearing for the first time. The Melting Pot is for miscellaneous material; letters to the editor, poems, clever sayings, etc. The exchange column is titled "From Other Schools." There will also be an Alumni column and occasionally a Faculty column. Contributions to any of these columns may be dropped in Box No. 274.

If the Bullet does not always come up to your standards please realize that this is, after all, only a college publication and its staff is not composed of expert journalists. Please give us suggestions and criticisms.

RESPECT FOR TABLE GIRLS

The girls who serve us in the dining hall are among the most important people on the entire hill. They are not only our roommates, our classmates and our friends, but they are a very integral part of our school. Day in, day out, comes morning, noon or night they are at their work ready to serve us. It is a privileged work of maintaining their status in college this, but at the same time they must maintain their high averages and be courteous, never tiring and alert. For their ever having this additional task we should appreciate them even more than we do. Let us not forget our please and thank you's, and helpful courteous attitudes and our small kindnesses for ones who deserve them far more than we ourselves.

ALUMNI

Several members of the present faculty and administrative staff of M. W. C. have been graduated from this college.

Miss Lela Hazel Allen, '33, has the position of Secretary to President Combs. While in school she was a member of Alpha Phi Sigma, the Commercial Club, and the Dramatic Club. She taught commercial subjects at Covington, Va., and Roanoke, Va., before returning to Mary Washington to take a position.

Mrs. Vernon Brown, '39, who until the early part of this session was Irene Lundy, is now Assistant Registrar. She also participated in the Commercial Club and Alpha Phi Sigma while in college.

Dr. Alvey a secretary, Miss Virginia Dickinson, '39, was President of Alpha Phi Sigma, Junior Class Treasurer, and was on the staff of the Bullet and Bayonet. Other activities were membership in the Leaders Club, Commercial Club, Baptist Student Union, Y. W. C. A., and Pi Omega Pi during her student days.

Our Associate Professor of Music and Voice, Miss Eva Taylor Eppes, has been with the college in this capacity for sixteen years. She received her M. A. degree at the University of Virginia after graduation from M. W. C.

Miss Ellen Elizabeth Leonard, who will be hostess in George Washington Hall, graduated in 1938. She did graduate work at Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, last year.

Secretary to Mrs. Bushnell is Mrs. Paul F. Luck, '38. During the year '37-'38 she was President of the English Club. She officiated as Feature Editor of the Bullet as well as belonging to the I. R. C. during her days at college.

JOLLY'S JOKES

Doctor: "There goes the only woman I ever loved."

Druggist: "Well, why don't you marry her?"

Doctor: "I can't afford to. She's my best patient."

ELEGY TO A JILT

My love have fiew,
Him did me dirt;
I did not know
Him were a flirt.

To they in love
Let I forbid—
Lest they he do'ed
Like I beend did.

As the ship was about to leave the harbor an old lady was knitting on the deck. "Cast off there," shouted the officer.

"Thank you officer," said the old lady tartly, "but I am quite capable of doing my own knitting."

THIS REALLY HAPPENED

A professor walked into a University of Toledo classroom, called the roll, and then started expounding the principles of psychology. For fifteen minutes he spoke. Then he asked the class a question on the subject. No answer. Another question. Still no answer. Another question. Still no answer.

"Doesn't anyone in this class ever study psychology?" he asked. "No, sir," was the answer. "This is an advanced English class."

The Melting Pot

Among other new columns being inaugurated in this issue is "The Melting Pot," a column created as a meeting place for the Bullet's readers. Here you may express your opinion or contribute short stories, essays, paragraphs, feature yarns, or poems, original or reprint. All letters must be signed when submitted to the Bullet. Names will be withheld on request.

ON SHEDDING A TEAR

The rain splashes not unlike my tears
One on a pane or on slanting roof—
Mine on a hand or cheek that clear

To let the pour unchecked as beating hoof
Drench out a message worn with the years.

The faucets of heaven send down the drops
From without my lids and the misted sky

Renting a heart or bidding the crops
Giving new life or seeling life die
For it echoes joy and sorrow when the voice is stopt.

Tears are golden; the rain is white,
Precious parcels in diamond and ore;

It questions the mind in it's dual life
Whether human or sky sent the purer bore

But only God knows and only God is right.

I ponder not to fathom these deeper living things
For both can wash a dirty clean and fresh

And each a separate vigil for the peace it brings
Reprints life more liveable to flesh
At the splash that's heaven sent—my heart forever sings.

Marjory Garrison

If American inventors are so ingenious, why don't they get up a foolproof can opener?

After 20 years in jail, Warren K. Billings tried freedom two weeks, and, then got married.

—The Washington Post.

Dear Editor:

The article appearing in The Bullet of November 17, entitled "Why Read the Newspaper" was a very good idea. We as college students and representatives of higher education should be all means read the newspaper and keep informed on issues of the day, but the good that the article might have done has been spoiled by the fact that it is written from an entirely narrow-minded and prejudiced angle. It is evidently the opinion of someone who does not read the papers.

We, as representatives of the more intelligent class of American people, certainly owe it to our country, and to the world to remain open-minded and unprejudiced on the subject of the present war in Europe, since the world's hope for peace and international understanding and cooperation rests with us.

In the before mentioned article the statement is made, "Aren't you interested in finding out whether Christianity and freedom will win or barbarism and slavery?" If this is the attitude of an American student with the best opportunities that our country affords for education, what will be the attitude of the masses of American people? Can we expect to remain neutral in name when we are actually one of the warring nations in attitude? Are we fulfilling our duties as Christians and Americans when we condemn a nation of people for the mistakes of a ruler? No! Then shouldn't we by our actions and speech try to further a spirit of tolerance, and understanding, and peace in the world at large?

Yours for international understanding and progress,
—A Reader

An old-fashioned girl blushes when she is embarrassed, but a modern girl is embarrassed when she blushes.

If all the M. W. C. girls who sleep in class were laid end to end they'd be much more comfortable.

Candid Shots by "Buck" Shot B. B. Shot

Hello my girls! Here am I, B. B. SHOT; that little shadow that follows you wherever you go; that small fellow with the candid camera and the eyes in the back of his head. I've just come to M. W. C. and have struck up a fine acquaintance with "the walls which have ears" and "the little birdie that sees all, knows all, and tells all," so you had better watch your step.

Ha! Friday evening, I'll bet all of you are wrapped up in memories of a previous Friday when you were getting ready for the "Big Moment." Well, buck up kiddos. Remember, there's only 19 more days 'till Christmas vacation.

Dotty Munden was a lucky lass. She had about four rides home but wound up on the R. F. & P. It was worth it.

In history class Mr. Darter asked Helen Burton if she were going to sleep. "No," she replied, "but I don't know anything anyway."

I guess Jacdie Ferguson enjoyed her holiday even if she did stay in "the hill." Kerr kept her busy receiving "bookays" (no wise-cracks, I can spell it), and telegrams.

Prepare yourself for a shock. Peggy Snow bowled 113 in Norfolk over the holidays.

I dropped in at the faculty-student volleyball games on Tuesday and really felt sorry for Miss Stewart and Miss Spiesman. They had to spend most of their time keeping out from under the men's feet. I was rather cross at Miss Spiesman though. Her serves really bruised me when I was viewing the game from the ceiling.

Can't someone supply Jo Ewing with some heart balm. There's a fine brand at the 5 & 10 called "Alabama Sigh Chaser."

Jean Plyler picked up a bull-dog somewhere between Richmond and Washington. (It was a toy one.)

It's peaches and cream again with Marian Jones and Dr. -----, well you know whom I mean.

Instead of "One hundred men and a Girl" it was "One hundred girls and a man" for Dr. Vogelback on the M. W. C. reserved coaches going North at Thanksgiving. The conductor didn't seem to like it either.

From Other Schools

There was a little girl
Who had little curls
All over her forehead,
When she was good
She was very, very good,
But when she was bad,
Oh boy!

—Maroon and Gold,
Elron College, N. C.

"I Cried For You" — Now look at my mascara.
"Heaven Can Wait" — So what's your hurry?
—The Triangle, Judson College.

AND NERO FIDDED: Midnight in West. dorm! Sound of a blaring horn! Bump of freshmen rolling out of bed! Fire Alarm! — then nothing happened. Tony, tearing up and down the hall, saw that all her little proteges, clad in bathrobes and with towel in hand, were standing patiently in their doors. It seems the fire alarm rules said to await orders. And that is what the little dears did.
—Hollins Student Life, Hollins College, Va.

NOW WE KNOW

HEARD IN AFTER TAPS BULL SESSIONS—

"----- yeah, but you're in love."

"----- and can she neck!"

"She's nice even if she is dumb."

"He gives me a pain in two places."

"----- and when I saw her in that strapless,

I fell for her."

"----- but she was staked!"

"Pitch? And how?"

"Who's squeaking them springs?"

"----- and then her old man walked in and caught me."
—The V. M. I. Cadet.

MORE SONGS

"Start the Day Right" — Morning typing class.

"I Love You Truly" — Lunch hour.

"An Apple For the Teacher" — Won't get you through on a C.

"Home Sweet Home" — After classes.

COLD STORAGE

Slippery ice — very thin.
Pretty girl — tumbled in.
Saw a boy — on the bank,
Gave a shriek — then she sank.
Boy on bank — heard her shout,
Jumped right in — helped her out,
Now he's hers — very nice,
But she had — to break the ice.

—Scholastic.

GRIN and Wear It!

The campus may be adorned with a cornfield instead of trees next year, if any of the girls lose these new necklaces. Incidentally, they are made of bright golden kernels of corn.

"Safety first" seems to be the motto of certain girls who wear bright bunches of safety pins around their necks.

Strangers should think the girls of M. W. C. very domesticated, judging from the bright measuring spoons which they wear. Spoons also make very nice bracelets. Speaking of necklaces, nails are not being used for other purposes than to hold boards together; instead of holding the board, they keep the "bored" interested in what college girls will think of next.

Why wear clothes like they are made to be worn when there are so many cuter ways to wear them? Knee length socks, like long sleeved sweaters, are smart when rolled, and instead of tucking a shirt in, tie a bow in front and roll up the sleeves. It may not look like "Vogue", but it spells comfort with a capital K!

The popular thing to sew today seems to be clothes for wee tots. The old adage says that it is the small things in life which count, and small clothes are attractive, even if none of us are diminutive enough to wear them.

Some of the citizens of Mary Washington came back from the holidays with some of the turkey feathers of the bird which graced their table, ornamenting their pork pie hats. From barnyard to dinner table, to classroom

Speaking of styles, the popular thing to be wearing now is a ring, and on which finger, we'll let you guess!

Dr. Alvey Is Hero

Dr. Edward Alvey, Dean of College, Professor of Education, star volleyball player for the Kirby Kangaroos, a regular jack-of-all-trades, has added another feature to his cap by becoming Hero No. 1 for the week.

Last Tuesday, it seems, someone had parked his car on the hill in back of Monroe Hall. But the brakes didn't hold and the automobile started rolling down-hill.

Dr. and Mrs. Alvey who were driving up the hill, saw the unoccupied auto rapidly gaining momentum. Quick as a flash, with the agility and alertness of a trained athlete, Dr. Alvey jumped from his car, dashed to the moving machine, threw open the door, jumped in, and pulled the emergency brake. At the completion of his heroic deed he stepped from the auto and with a sigh of relief mopped his brow.

The few who saw the automobile rolling were too petrified to move. It was Dr. Alvey who saved the day—or rather the car. Scads of orchids to this brave gentleman who by his quick thinking made sure that a rolling auto would gather no moss.

Are You Thankful?

Our parents have sufficiently recovered from deficiency slips to welcome us home with open arms. There is a breakfast bell to wake us up in the morning.

For our appetites (?) At least we are healthy.

That the laundry is lenient about taking laundry a day late.

That Washington Hall is no more than a mile away.

We have to climb a hill to come home from Frank's. (It's good exercise.)

It is only 1/4 mile to town, instead of 2, which it seemed to be the first time we walked it.

For the ice water in Virginia Hall.

For the girl in 128 with the nice hot water bottle.

For Ruth's mother, who is SUCH a good cook.

For Gerry, who sets our hair so nicely.

For Caroline, who keeps our lights "low."

That chicken rings are good for other things than their original purpose.

That the weird noises at night aren't spoken of.

That the mail is not always put on time, for then we receive letters when they are least expected.

For a fun loving spirit which is the envy of the upper classmen.

"Round The Dial"

The beautiful Duke Ellington tune, "Serenade to Sweden," has attracted so much attention that its title may be changed to something in a more romantic vein. It promises to be another "I Let a Song Go Out of My Heart." It is also great to report that since the Duke has been given air time, he is becoming one of the No. 1 favorites—where he belongs.

Tommy Dorsey wrote a song called "Shoot the Sherbet to Me, Herbert." He published it himself and followed up with a big promotion stunt. Now, after all that, he can't play it on the network himself. Mutual, over which he is heard, has banned it.

Benny Goodman will begin auditioning amateur singers next week at the Waldorf. Don't rush, gals!

Peg La Center, star of the N. B. C. Serenades show, is a junior at New York University. She'll perform for Fall at the Junior Prom.

Glen Miller and band record two new tunes for Bluebird from "Culiver's Travels." "Faithful Forever," a slow, beautiful ballad, and "Bluebirds in the Moonlight," a fastie with Eberle and Hutton spitting a fine vocal.

Hal Kemp, on Victor, in a fine, slow double, "Last Night" and "Many Dreams Ago," featuring the swell Nan Wynn.

Dinah Shore proves again why she is the discovery of 1939 by singing "Who Told You I Cared" and "I Like To Recognize the Tune."

Decca's hit of the week is "My Prayer" as recorded by Jimmy Dorsey. It's great!

At long last we've just heard the new Benny Goodman sextet on a terrific tune from "Swingin' the Dream" called "Flying Home." It is absolutely the best record of the month, with the equally swell "Rose Room" on the other side, which is mellow and smooth and has a soft send. A Columbia record.

LOVE SONG OF A SECRETARY

The typewriter's before me and the paper's white and fine,
But my heart's beating love songs
with your name on every line.

I long to fashion sonnets and mad
verses with my pen,
But I have to write a letter, and begin it, "Gentlemen."

I want to catch the fantasies that fill me as I write,
So I can tell them to you when
I'm in your arms tonight.

But the nameless little spirit that inhabits every word,
Is crushed in my "Referring to your letter of the 3rd!"

The rhythm of my poem fades to some forgotten place
When I try to rhapsodize about an advertising space.

And isn't it a pity that the song
my heart immures,
As lyrics form within, just reads,
"Very truly yours?"

Of Leaves And Views

There is a "must" book on the shelf this week and the honor goes to Paul Gaico's late Cosmopolitan serial, "Tale of Six Cities." Just now off the Alfred A. Knopf press under the revised heading of "The Adventures of Hiram Holliday," a great novel of war-misered Europe is awaiting you.

The plot centers about one newspaperman, Hiram Holliday, who, in going to Europe on an innocent news venture, become suddenly involved in international headline news. Through war shadowed capitals, through a worn-torn Europe, we follow his escapades. In so doing we are brought a vivid picture of life on the Continent today.

Casual Comments On Current Fashions At The Vogue

By Cary Billingsley

"Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all away" and believe you—me you had better be on your way too, if YOU want to get your CHRISTMAS SHOPPING done before the mad rush is on! When you get home for the holidays you'll want to relax and enjoy your friends, so let's get started. I made an excursion through the VOGUE SHOPPE and found these grand gifts at such reasonable prices—

"Bolero", the new evening handkerchief, the handkerchief of the month in Harper's Bazaar. It is made of chiffon and is dotted with rhinestones and has a rhinestone wristband. All colors and priced from 50c to $1.00.

NECKWEAR—White silk ascots so good-looking with a black fitted coat—$1.00. Also those ever popular white handwoven woolen squares for only 75c.

GLOVES are always nice to receive at Christmas especially if you are one of those people who are always losing your gloves. We have kids and stades in black, brown, rust, wine and green in three different price ranges.

JEWELRY is something so many people love to have. Our collection includes silver and gold mesh belts (something new) at $1.00 each; plaided pearl necklaces for only $1.00 and a large variety of other jewelry for sports or evening wear all price around $1.00.

BLOUSES are a very popular. We have sport or frilly blouses in all colors of the rainbow from $1.98 up. I know you will be glad to know THE VOGUE has some Lane blouses on order!

This group of gift suggestions will be continued next week. And don't forget we will wrap all your gifts in Christmas paper all ready for you to give. (adv.)

"Berkeley Square" Is Postponed

The play "Berkeley Square," sponsored by the Young Women's Christian Association and produced by the Mary Washington Players, has been indefinitely postponed as the new auditorium of George Washington Hall will not be opened in time for the date of the play.

Group Being Started In Basketball Officiating

A group is being organized for the winter quarter to offer instruction and practice in basketball officiating for all those who are interested. If you have had any experience in this it will be of help to you but if you have had none you may join the group by signing the notice on the bulletin board in the gymnasium not later than December 8th.

Last year the group was conducted in the following manner. During the first meeting the girls were divided into two groups; a senior group, of those who had previously had instruction in officiating, and a junior group of those who had not. Members of the senior group acted as leaders and assistants to the juniors. All girls were given opportunities to officiate in the basketball classes, team practices and games.

Following this practice period, theory tests were given. The girls were awarded ratings according to the test results.

The present officiating Board of Mary Washington College consists of the following:

Miss Rogers, Chairman of the Board; Miss Sinclair, Chairman of the Examining Committee; Ann Smith, Secretary-Treasurer (only student holding a national officiating rating in this college); Josephine Inskeep, Local Rating; Jane Adams, Local Rating; Martha Murray, Intramural Rating; Peggy Porch, Provisional Intramural Rating; Lavinia Ellett, Provisional Intramural Rating (publicity chairman).

• Don't forget to sign on the bulletin board immediately!

Devils and Goats On Sale

REMEMBER GIRLS! You can secure Goats and Devils now by signing on the Bulletin Board. Each Devil or Goat will be 60c. So, if you want to purchase an emblem of just what you stand for in athletics at Mary Washington College you had better get your pen and sign your name to the list right away! Who will shine the brightest—the Devils or the Goats? Come on, show folks whether you are a Devil or a Goat.

Basketball Plans Underway

Jo Inskeep has announced that Basketball Plans are underway. Games will begin immediately after Christmas. There will be class games, dormitory games, varsity faculty games and Devil-Goat game. Watch the Bulletin board!

Golf Film To Be Shown Tuesday

On next Tuesday night at 7:00 in the Auditorium there will be shown a very interesting and an excellent educational picture on Golf. The title of this picture is "Keystone of Golf." This is a slow motion sound film, explained in details by Bobby Jones, Jr.

This picture is made and sent out by the Golf Institute, which has the reputation of being very educational and one that produces very entertaining films.

EVERYONE IS CORDIALLY INVITED TO ENJOY THIS wonderful film, which will make you really see what Golf is—a good comparison between the way you play golf and the way others play. Come, see which you like best. The slow motion film is one which affords you a view of the player as he places the golf ball.

Volley Ball!

VOLLEY BALL TOURNAMENT is being played at the present time. The tournament plays and schedules of the games are as follows:

November 28: Sophomore Majors vs. Pierce Pole-Cats.

November 28: Freshmen Majors vs. Kirby Kangaroos.

November 30: Senior Majors vs. Junior Majors.

November 30: Waldens vs. Applegates.

December 1: Town Girls vs. Maxinites.

Other games are being scheduled as soon as the above are played off, so you can see that the interesting part of the tournament is beginning to come forward more and more as the tournament runs closer to the end. These games are really entertaining and exciting. I understand the faculty members are taking all the honors away from the students by winning all the matches. Students, let's get out and see what we can do about this. Come on out and yell for your fellow classmates, we want to take a number of the honors at the end of the tournament.

Watch the bulletin board for the match to be played each day through next Friday, December 8!

MEET YOUR FRIENDS

— AT —

THE SOUTHERN GRILL

Meeting Of The Entire A. A.

Immediately after convocation on Wednesday evening there was a meeting of the entire Athletic Association. This meeting was called to order by the president, Jane Adams, after which new and old business was discussed.

Miss Adams then presented the Athletic Association Council with small emblems. The following girls receiving the same: Virginia Dare Dougherty, Rebecca Buckingham, Katherine Roberts, Vivian Dixon, Dorothy Graf, Jean Grant, Marguerite Fortman, Ann Smith, Roberta Lyon, Margaret Gilman, Margaret Morrison, Ann Peckich, Catherine Rucker, Beverly Roberts, Lula Bray, Martha Murray, Josephine Inskeep, Eunice Martin, Patsey Ann Huffman and Irene Thornton.

Following the presentation of the small emblems six girls were presented with large Monograms: Ann Smith, Josephine Inskeep, Jane Adams, Charlotte Morgan, Lenora Weiss, and Eunice Martin. Those girls receiving these monograms have gotten 1,000 Athletic Points by the participation in the various activities of the Association on the campus.

The above six girls are the only persons in this college who hold these Monograms. Misses Smith, Inskeep and Adams won their Monograms last year, their junior year. This is a distinct honor to have won these monograms and especially to have received them during their junior year.

The Frosh Chosen Members of A. A.

Because of the great number of Freshmen this year, the A. A. Council decided to have two representatives from the freshman class. They are Irene Altieri from White Plains, N. Y., and Patsey Ann Huffman from Columbus, Ga. who were elected by their class Friday night, November 17.

Irene, who is majoring in Physical Education, was captain of her high school hockey team. She played varsity basketball and was on the class teams in hockey, basketball and baseball. In high school she was also president of the Dramatic club, editor of the annual and literary editor of the newspaper.

At Mary Washington, Irene is on the freshman hockey team and is a member of the Freshman Commissioner.

Receiving a sports letter in high school, Patsey Ann played on the basketball, tennis and track teams. She also served on the school newspaper staff.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

Dr. J. N. Thomas, pastor of the Grace Covenant Presbyterian church in Richmond, will be the guest speaker at the Y. W. C. A. meeting to be held Tuesday, at 8 p. m. in the auditorium.

Dr. Thomas, originally from Bedford, Va., is one of the most outstanding young people's leaders in this section of the country. He is noted for his humor, wit and

Varsity Hockey Team Announced

The names of those girls making the Varsity Hockey Team were announced recently by Vivian Dixon, Chairman of Hockey for the 1939-40 season. These players were chosen by the Selection Committee from those girls who played in the Devil-Goat game. The following girls make up the 1939-40 Mary Washington Varsity Hockey Team: Margaret Morrison, Mildred MacPherson, Rebecca Buckingham, Jean McCaffrey, Lois Loehr, Betty Jean Pitman, Marguerite Fortman, Esther Putman, Anne Peckich, Ann Smith, Mary M. Criegler, Charlotte Morgan, Josephine Inskeep, Virginia D. Dougherty, Martha Murray, Virginia Urbin, Vivian Dixon and Kay Rucker.

Miss Vivian Dixon has served in the capacity of Chairman of Hockey for this season and has performed the duties in an excellent and efficient manner. The entire Athletic Association feel very fortunate in having such a responsible person working with it. Miss Dixon has been instrumental in planning the games and in scheduling the tournament which has just ended.
